

Merchants who advertise in The Mahoning Dispatch are certain to get the best bargains going. Reading the business announcements before starting out to shop is time well and profitably spent.

Terms: $1.00 a Year.

VOL. XXXVIII.

An Independent Family Journal—Devoted to the Interests of All Classes and Nationalities.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, O., FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1914.

Is what The Mahoning Dispatch strives to give every patron, no matter whether the job is large or small. Both receive the same careful attention. An opportunity to estimate your next order of printing is solicited.

Invariably in Advance

NO. 11

WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, Breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings in the Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

By Peter M. Herold

Flag day next Sunday. Display Old Glory.

James Paisley was home from Youngstown on Sunday.

Wm. T. Smith is completing a cistern at his home on East Main street.

The Carrollton pottery had a $50,000 fire loss at 10 o'clock Friday night.

The Salem industrial picnic will be held at Rock Springs park on Saturday, June 20.

Gas has been piped into the homes of Walter Smith and Hugh Dalrymple on Walnut street.

O. C. Weikart has had his mill painted the color of Pullman cars, with white trimmings.

Miss Marie Warner is visiting at the home of her brother Frank Warner and wife in Canton.

Andrew Muir has improved his dwelling near the school building until it resembles the castle of the Duke of Argyle.

The Ohio wheat crop for this year gives promise of being large, yet its importance is not so great as a good corn crop.

In order to get out of town and have some place to go, a large number of our villagers went to Salem Saturday night to attend the carnival.

Leslie Burton and Carl Muir have joined Loron Taylor's class in wireless telegraphy, and they must send S. O. S. or be discharged from the service.

Lorin Russell keeps his coon dog in the animal drawn with chalk upon the door, and below the picture reads: "Dog, danger, keep out."

The fountain at the cross roads west of town remains without water. Since two townships spent considerable money to locate it, there is no doubt that the purpose for which it was built.

Word reaches here that Charles Hotchiss has returned to his home in Monessen, Pa., from the Pittsburgh hospital, having improved much more rapidly than was at first thought to be possible.

Ed Luxeul is a delegate from Welcoming lodge K. of P. to the state convention being held in Cincinnati this week. Mrs. O. P. Moore is also in attendance, representing the local Pythian Sisters.

Nate Whitacre of Long's Crossing and Sylvia Lightner of Leetonia were united in marriage by Justice John McKelver in Lisbon last Thursday.

Also Roy Kyser of Salem and Ruth Wagonhouse of Leetonia.

Geo. W. Allen, J. N. Paisley, Ray Stouffer, Edwin Johnson and Jacob Parry attended the automobile races at Southern Park Saturday afternoon, and report that "eastern time" was made by some of the machines.

The man who buys tombstones of Sears, Roebuck & Co. has no grounds for complaining that the trustees of Oakland cemetery do not furnish tools for cemetery work. S. R. & Co. also furnish all kinds of tools at reduced rates.

David S. Calvin disposed of a wagon load of fresh fish in this village last Friday and promises to continue the remainder of this month at least. If you want to hear a good fish story, just wait until he comes to town on Friday.

Herman Coy and Miss Mabel Feicht were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, and the groom passed around the 5-centers. The Locust Grove correspondent may tell the rest.

Miss Myrtle Holland was recently granted an E-year teachers' certificate by the Belmont county board of examiners, which will be recognized in any county of the state. She passed a grade of 95 on pedagogy and 95 on music, besides being an all-around scholar.

The case of Frederick Scharf vs. the Y. & O. Railway company, heard in Justice C. F. Lease's court in Salem, has been appealed by the railway company to common pleas court. Scharf had secured a judgment for $156 for a coal killed by one of the company's cars.

The State Industrial Commission has granted an award to Fred Hetherington of Salineville of $102.88 for an injury recently sustained by him while in the employ of The Sterling Coal Co. at Salineville. The award of the commission was granted under the provisions of the Ohio Workmen's Compensation Law.

Rev. A. L. Nixon, the Leetonia Methodist minister, preached an appropriate and highly interesting discourse to members of Court Ross of May, P. of A., in the local M. E. church Sunday afternoon. The order marched in a body from their lodge room to the church and were well entertained. The Foresters are not a religious organization nor do they assume to take the place of the church, yet they fill St. Paul's idea of charity and brotherly love—the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man—which fulfills all the law and the gospel. Locally speaking, they are an honorable organization of young men who help one another when in need of assistance.

Friends here of "Sis" Lightner will be interested in the following from Lisbon last Saturday: Judge Farr has issued a marriage license to Nate Whitacre, of Long's Crossing, five miles north of Lisbon, and Sylvia Lightner of Leetonia, and they were married by Squire John McKelver.

Sylvia is well known in Lisbon, where she has figured in police court. Some time ago she was put under a suspended sentence to the Canton workhouse by Mayor Hennyway so long as she stayed away from Lisbon. Several weeks ago she landed in town again and was arrested and put in jail. Three weeks ago Whitacre came to Lisbon and on his promise to marry Sylvia, Mayor Hennyway gave her freedom under suspended sentence.

Miners and coal operators have taken a week's vacation.

Lee Weikart and wife of East Liverpool are visiting his parents in this village.

Abel Tourdot spent a few days this week at the home of his sisters in Canton.

Mrs. Harry Steinberg, formerly of this village, is confined in a Cleveland hospital.

Monday was the first day of the year that people inquired "is it hot enough for you?"

Application has been made to probate the will of Louise M. Weidmayer, late of Leetonia.

Two colored ladies were here Monday soliciting aid for the Afro American orphanage at Toledo.

A class of 102 persons took their first communion in St. Paul's Catholic church in Salem last Sunday forenoon.

The school library will be open from 5 to 6 o'clock every Friday afternoon, when the bell rings, during school hours.

Frank C. Boston and his brigade of pickers are "in the berries" this week. Frank is a hustler and turns everything to account.

James Chapple and his friend, Wm. Lander, of Lorain are spending this week with his sisters here and with relatives in Salem.

More ice cream is being used this season than for many years, and when mixed with strawberries the demand exceeds the supply.

The forty-eighth annual encampment of the department of Ohio, G. A. R., will be held in the city of East Liverpool June 22-25.

The Lutheran Sunday school classes of Miss Jennie Maxwell and Miss Marie King had an enjoyable picnic in Hartzell's grove on Tuesday.

The colored people of Ohio, western Pennsylvania and northern West Virginia will hold a grand union picnic at Rock Springs park Tuesday, June 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vogle of Salem are looking after the domestic affairs at the home of O. P. Moore during the absence of Mrs. Moore in Cincinnati.

When Isaac Lelsy comes to town in a yellow car from Cleveland he puts up at the hotel Higgins and his friends call in to interview him as to the hop and barley crop in Oregon.

The embargo on bass fishing has been removed by the laws of Ohio, but reports from the creeks' banks are to the effect that the bass do not seem to know that the bling season is on.

Wellsville has a curfew ordinance to get the boys off the streets at 9 o'clock. This may do in dry towns, where everybody is supposed to govern themselves according to the Blue Laws.

Mrs. Carrie Eyster, widow of the late Elias Eyster, while visiting her sisters at Franklin Square last week, suffered a stroke of paralysis and lost the power of speech. She also fell and sustained severe bruises.

Considerable apprehension is felt at Belmont over the disappearance of Joe Young, a miner who has not been seen since he made a trip to Salem about a week ago. His family and relatives are making efforts to locate him.

"The poor shall have the gospel preached unto them," said the prophet Isaiah, and on Saturday the Columbiana county commissioners appointed a minister for the infirmaries. Other counties have been doing it for a quarter of a century.

The state industrial commission Friday granted an award of $98 to George A. Hinsdale for an injury to his finger sustained while in the employ of the Deming company at Salem.

The injury resulted from the poisoning from the effects of which Mr. Hinsdale is now rapidly recovering.

During the thunder storm last week Thursday a Guensey grade heifer, valued at $50, owned by Capt. A. L. Atkinson at Damascus was killed by lightning. The same day, on the Frank S. Green farm on the Lisbon road, a valuable mare and colt standing in the barn were killed, valued at $250.

J. E. Gilbert and wife entertained the Euchre club Saturday night, when Mrs. Maggie Spear captured first honors and Clara Waggle got the "booby."

These social gatherings are a source of amusement and enjoyment and help dull care from the mind. They have come to be seasons of neighborly acquaintance.

Harry Hartzell and Elmer Warner have the best fields of wheat east of town that we have seen this year. Of course I have not seen them all, but they are certainly the best I have seen.

They do not confine themselves to wheat, corn and potatoes, but they do a general truck farming, have good hay fields and are successful in the cultivation of strawberries. If one crop fails, they are certain of another.

Anna Ashman, who lives along the creek near Washingtonville, brought suit against the United Iron and Steel Company, which operates its furnaces at Leetonia, for $2,000 damages claimed to have been done to her property by reason of overflows of water caused by the erection of a dam by the Steel company to supply water for its plant.

The claim is made that the building of the dam caused the creek bed to fill up with sediment and that as a result the level of the water was raised so that at flood time the back water swept over the property, causing a deposit of sediment that was injurious to health and damaging to the property.

The following democratic county ticket was placed in nomination at Lisbon last week Thursday afternoon: Auditor, Bert Burns, Lisbon; sheriff, Sam W. Crawford, Lisbon; treasurer, J. M. Mahaffie, Calcutta; clerk of courts, Lester Phipps, Lisbon; recorder, J. D. Rice, Madison township; county surveyor, Willis S. Robinson, Unity township; commissioners, J. W. Erwin, Wayne township; O. T. Beight, East Palestine; Robert M. Patterson, Elkrun township; prosecuting attorney, W. O. Wallace, Columbiana; coroner, Dr. James Gruber, Hanover township; state representatives, Joseph Gilgallon, East Liverpool; Conrad Berg, Leetonia.

There will be preaching in the Lutheran church next Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. James A. Matzenbaugh of Oak Ridge farm spent Wednesday with Greenford friends.

A large super-heating Buckeye-Mobile engine passed through here from Salem Wednesday.

Two snapping turtles were expressed from here to Harry Hileman in Cleveland Wednesday morning.

Health Officer Wm. Holt reports this village in a sanitary condition and no contagious diseases known.

Mrs. Laura Rohrer Beach has returned from the Cleveland hospital, being greatly benefited by the operation.

Owing to the intense heat, Judges Moore and Barnum permit persons to appear in the court rooms at Lisbon in their shirt sleeves.

The Y. & O. trainmen are all wearing rings for rheumatism, and their trademark is a brown colored band around the ring-finger.

Wm. Summerville, Wm. Tetlow and "Germany" were turtle hunting near Greenford on Wednesday and reduced the high cost of living.

Elmer Harrold, C. S. Anglemeyer and H. D. Weaver are the building committee for the new $15,000 Lutheran school chapel for St. Paul's Lutheran church in Leetonia.

The Leetonia lockup and Mayor's office have been condemned by the state building inspector as being unsafe and unsanitary and they were ordered removed to the ground floor.

Geo. Hooker is in an almost helpless condition since he was stricken with paralysis, and on Tuesday application was made to have him taken to the Lisbon infirmary.

A son was born at the home of Robt. Eyster and wife Monday night, and another son came to the home of Wilbert DeJame and wife Tuesday night. And the stock is still at large.

Dr. H. K. Yaggi of Salem, known here by his successful surgical operations, will leave this evening for New York, from which place he will sail for Europe. He was given a reception Tuesday evening attended by 250 of his friends.

The Leetonia steel plant has been ordered sold for an amount sufficient to pay the liens and expenses of the receivership. Judge Moore gave this order to the receiver Tuesday morning.

Washingtonville creditors may yet get something.

Jos. Tourdot's family had their first pick of home-grown strawberries up on the market Monday forenoon. The same day Harry Hartzell and other country grocers shipped consignments of this luscious fruit to T. O. Rhodes in Pittsburgh.

We have been requested to extend a general invitation to everybody to attend the Germantown school reunion to be held in that district Saturday, June 20. One and all are invited and will be warmly welcome to participate in the festivities of the day.

Palomena S. Cecelia of Leetonia was granted a divorce from Frank Cecelia by Judge Moore Monday. They were married in Italy. The woman claimed that her husband left her and went to Portland, Oregon, where he is living with the woman who broke up their home.

In addition to the car loads of beer sold in this village and the tubs full of ice cream consumed, David Morjanstar disposes of a wagon load of soft drinks; and it is a wonder how Greenford, Canfield and Lisbon manage to live through this tropical weather without the "brown grog."

Several citizens from Washingtonville were in Lisbon Monday calling attention of the commissioners to the creek near that town which has become clogged with brush and other debris which backs up the water and causes damage to the property.

The commissioners will look into the matter—Lisbon Patriot.

William Dalrymple of Washingtonville, who on three or four former occasions has made the run, is out again for sheriff at the republican primaries. He was in Lisbon Friday passing his car.

That he will have a harder fight at the election than at the primaries—Patriot.

Five sheep owned by George Neigh, who resides on the Wetmore farm, near Albany, were killed by lightning, and the home of Harry Shinn on the Benton road, was slightly damaged by lightning, by the severe storm which swept over this vicinity about noon last Thursday.

The "community" tree, planted up on the Lisbon public square on Christmas is dead; and were it not for the court house the same might be said of the entire town. Yet J. T. Kennedy says: "Some of these days there will be a public demonstration against the lawlessness in this community. Most any one can read the handwriting."

Two official members of the Lincoln Highway association passed through here last Sunday morning about 9 o'clock in an automobile.

They left New York City June 4 with a bottle of water taken from the Atlantic ocean and after passing through 40 towns will dip the front wheels in the Pacific ocean and the bottle of water will be emptied. Their schedule calls for 20 miles per hour and 125 miles each day.

When Hon. Percy Tetlow supported the constitutional amendment on equal suffrage, he did so because he meant it as an act of justice to women and in the interests of labor, the same as that slavery was abolished to prevent its coming in competition with free labor. Monday forenoon we noticed him across the alley on New street giving a practical demonstration of his expressed opinions.

With his arms up to the elbows in the mud, bending over the wash tub, we noticed him rubbing up and down upon the wash board relieving his wife of much of the drudgery connected with that dreaded wash day; and we concluded that he should ever be sent to congress, he will find enough political "dirty linen" in Washington to clean up and iron out that will keep him there several terms. And in order to do this no congressman should be connected with railroads or other corporations where legislation is needed.

BACK FROM COLLEGE

Warren G. Weikart and Miss Leora Thorp, well known young people of this village, were united in marriage by Rev. Earl Lea at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday evening in presence of relatives. They will reside in Leetonia, after their honeymoon trip.

The school board called a meeting for Tuesday night, but the weather being intense no one came except J. N. Paisley, and he adjourned until next Tuesday night. The weather had not changed for the better on Wednesday night and no meeting was held in the K. of P. lodge.

Thomas Grindle of Canton, James Grindle of Waynesburg, Moses Grindle of this place and Mrs. Wm. Herron of Calla were summoned on Tuesday to the bedside of their mother, Mrs. Matilda Grindle, who suffered another attack of chronic heart trouble at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Paisley.

John R. Stratton and wife, aged 72 and 70 years respectively, celebrated their Golden Wedding at their home in Leetonia Tuesday afternoon by a grand reception to their friends, who responded in large numbers. Those to attend from this village were Thomas Heaton and daughter Mary, Henry Getz and wife. An elegant luncheon was served and dainty badges were distributed to the scores of guests who registered; the badges being a silver letter "S" attached to cards and tied with yellow ribbon.

Being the delicate handwork of their daughter, Mrs. Emmor Marshall of weeping Water, Neb. The bride and groom of fifty years were made happy in the thought that they are highly respected and that their children had planned the affair so satisfactorily.

Miss Maria Newhouse and John R. Stratton were married at Washingtonville, June 9, 1864, at 3 o'clock at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Samuel Wagoner. Miss Wagoner, daughter of Rev. Mr. Wagoner, now Mrs. C. F. Pepple of Leetonia, was the only attendant at the wedding, and she was present at the celebration. For 13 months after the wedding Mr. Stratton served his country in the civil strife, he having enlisted at Salem in the 104th regiment, Co. G. After the war Mr. and Mrs. Stratton made their home in Stark county, he farming in the summer and teaching school in the winter.

Since 1869 the have made their home near Leetonia, and for the past 20 years have resided where Mr. Stratton follows the carpenter trade.

First Reunion of Germantown Teachers and Pupils

Will be held at Germantown, Ohio, Saturday, June 20th. Exercises commence promptly at 10:30, eastern time. Program:

Music.
Invocation—Rev. E. Detwiler.
Opening address by the President.
Music.
Address of Welcome—J. L. Yoder.
Prayer—Mrs. R. Slottor.
Music.
Address, Early Environments—Hon. J. L. Zimmerman.
Noon, picnic dinner.
(3 o'clock eastern time)
Music.
Miscellaneous Business.
Music.

The officers are S. D. Culp, president; J. L. Yoder, vice president; Mrs. Wm. Weikart, recording secretary; S. D. Klingensmith, corresponding secretary; executive committee, Henry Detwiler, Noah Bixler, Alvin Knopp, Estella Esterly, Ada Yoder.

CONFEDERATE CORNERS

June 10—John Schaeffer, with his force of men, is building a large addition to Geo. Nichol's barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Painter spent Saturday night at the carnival in Salem.

Miss Pearl Johnston entertained friends from Akron last week.

France Hendricks is doing painting for ex-Postmaster Knauf on his farm dwellings.

Miss Anna Coy, who died at the county infirmary, was brought back to East Leetonia Tuesday where funeral services were held at the Union church.

Peter Wenzel and wife spent Saturday night and Sunday in Salem with their daughter, Mrs. Krause.

Lyd's Harmon died Sunday and was buried Wednesday forenoon at the Mennonite cemetery. This community has lost one of its best and most highly respected members. Mrs. Harmon's great glory in this world was to help the poor and distressed, being always willing and ready to extend a helping hand when called upon. She leaves to mourn her loss one daughter, Mrs. John Cook, and five grandchildren, and 6 great grandchildren.

Most of us could do a lot of work while trying to dodge it.

CORNNERSBURG

June 10—Mrs. Elizabeth Turner and daughter Artie entertained a large number of friends at their pleasant home last Saturday. The affair was one of the more enjoyable ever participated in by the guests who were treated at noon to a chicken spread par excellence. The menu included all that could be desired or the appetite crave. Those present were Rev. W. J. Kratz, wife and daughter Mildred and son Luther, Mrs. John Herr and son Jack, Mrs. Lewis DeCamp, Mrs. Carl Hildebrand, daughter Florence and son Carl, Mrs. William Bakody, Mrs. Thomas Wamamaker, Mrs. G. W. Strook, Miss R. T. Osborne, Mrs. Bert Hopkins, and daughter Vera, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. John Smith, daughter Elizabeth and son William, Mrs. Harry Smith and son Thomas, Mrs. Melissa Cline, Mrs. Austin Crum, Mr. Catharine Corli, Mrs. Frank Osborne and granddaughter, Florence Yeager, Mrs. Rebekah Handwork, Mrs. Martyn Goering, Mrs. Charles Weaver and daughters Dorothy and Ruth and son Harry, Mrs. Lewis Zimmerman, daughter Mary and son Frank, Mrs. Mary Curritt, Mrs. Blaine Roberts and daughter Phoebe. Visiting and the knotting of three comforts was the order of the day.

G. W. Ryder, wife and son William, Thomas Wamamaker and wife called on Austintown and North Jackson friends Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Scott Blackburn of the city spent a few days this week in the home of Harry Smith.

Mrs. Lavina Lanterman of the city spent a couple of days last week in the home of her son, Frank.

R. C. Millikin and family of the city spent Sunday in the home of P. B. Riblet.

Levi Little was a Sunday visitor in the home of his brother Lemuel near Coal Mines.

Geo. Boucsein, a real estate dealer, has moved into the Kimberly house on Lanterman avenue.

Miss Edith M. Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, of the Price road and Andrew Carter of near Four Mile Run were quietly married one day last week.

The many friends here of Mrs. William Datsen were shocked to hear of her death which occurred at her home in Youngstown Friday afternoon. The cause of her death was spinal trouble. She leaves her husband and five children to mourn her loss. Mrs. Datsen formerly resided on what is known as the Kistler farm and was a regular attendant at the Lutheran church of this place while living there.

Misses Cora, Grace and Edith Crum and Albert Nelson of the city spent Sunday in the home of the former's uncle, George Brooks, on west street.

Mrs. Curtis spent Sunday in the home of Daniel Foster in Youngstown.

Joe Smith of the south side is having a porch built on the east side of his residence.

Mrs. Levi Little attended a Koffee Klatch in the home of Mrs. Ullman of the city Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Morgan Williams spent Sunday in the home of her son William in Sharon.

The ladies of the Lutheran church will hold an ice cream and strawberry social at the church Saturday evening to which the public is most cordially invited.

LOCUST GROVE

June 10—F. W. Calvin and family were in Forestville Sunday afternoon, visiting at the home of W. W. Wonseller.

Mrs. G. O. Calvin and daughter recently called on Erma Clay, who has been confined to her bed since Easter Sunday with spinal trouble.

Mrs. J. W. Moore and daughter, Mrs. Toot, recently called on J. W. Calvin and family.

Anthony Less and family called upon Raymond Lamb Sunday afternoon. Homer Crumbacher and wife visited at S. W. Yoder's over Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Gavin of Leetonia visited her sister, Mrs. John Cunningham, Sunday.

John Brown, Miss Fannie Carson and Erda Parsching were at Idora park Saturday night.

Corn in this locality is about all planted and some late potatoes are in. Harry Kline of Rosemont called Monday at Elmer Brobst's.

Mrs. Almon Eastman of Canfield called Wednesday on her daughter, Mrs. Mary Brobst.

Mrs. and Mrs. Adson Troxell and three children of Pictarian, Pa., visited Messrs. Carson and Pershing last week. Mr. Troxell returned home Sunday. The family expects to remain a month.

Several Odd Fellows from this street attended lodge in Youngstown last Tuesday night.

Residents or visitors to Turner Street who have not received due attention in this correspondence will please be patient until the return of the regular correspondent who is away on a visit.

KNAUFVILLE

June 10—Frank and Herbert Knauf spent Tuesday in Youngstown, where they visited with Miss Ethel Knauf. Herbert Knauf and family were Sunday visitors at Maurice Goodman's at Toot's Corners.

Philip Lenhart, who is employed in Warren, spent Sunday here with his parents.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ford McGinnis and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kennedy of Canfield called at Frank Knauf's Monday afternoon.

Several from here attended commencement exercises in Canfield last Friday.

Miss Hanley and Levan of Youngstown spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. J. A. Ewing.

A social will be held in the Knaufville school house Saturday evening, June 13. Ice cream and cake will be served. The proceeds will go to the literary society. Everybody welcome.

When it comes to breeding contempt, familiarity isn't in it with a raw onion.

MILTON

June 10—Mrs. Robert Ormsby, who has been in Warren for some time, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Ormsby.

Joseph Osborne spent Wednesday and Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gillmer.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Rose were in Newton Falls Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Milligan of Youngstown visited Wm. Crellan and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schoder of Warren visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cramer, Sunday.

W. A. Reed and wife were in Jackson Wednesday.

Maudie Arne is quite sick with whooping cough and pneumonia.

Miss Neva Cramer, Mrs. Jacob Henderson, Earl Henderson and Roy Lower were initiated in the first and second degrees at a special meeting of Milton grange Wednesday night.

There is quite an epidemic of whooping cough